

Working student in Controlling (m/f/d)

Your start in controlling: Greater insight, greater impact!

YOUR MISSION

In a dynamic environment characterised by organisational change, you will support our Controlling team in enhancing transparency and reliability in data, analyses and processes. By taking on key responsibilities, you will ease the workload of your colleagues in their day-to-day operations and make a valuable contribution to informed decision-making. You will also have the opportunity to take on your own (sub)projects and see them through to a successful conclusion, thereby creating real added value for the company.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- You will prepare analyses such as cost centre reports, margin and inventory analyses, and cost-reduction reports
- Preparing cost estimates for development projects or sales-related issues will form part of your role
- You will prepare data and information for reports and assist with the further development of our reporting system
- Your responsibilities include implementing smaller projects,

YOUR EXPERIENCES

- You are currently studying Business Administration, Business Informatics or a similar degree programme
- You are characterised by analytical thinking, a flair for numbers and the ability to quickly grasp complex relationships
- You have a good command of written and spoken English
- Experience in accounting or controlling is an advantage – if you haven't gained this collaborating on larger projects, and assisting with the month-end closing

yet, a keen interest in these subjects is perfectly sufficient

- General administrative and organisational tasks round off your role

WHY CHERRY SHOULD BE YOUR CHOICE

WHAT IS CHERRY DOING?
